COURAGE TO CHANGE

Courage to Change had a surprise Thursday June 21. We were blessed with 3 speakers from the Recovery Point in Parkersburg. Justin our scheduled guest speaker brought Adam and Travis with him. Each man told his story of addiction, recovery and hope. Justin told how he grew up in a church with a religious family, but still turned to alcohol and drugs to fill the void in his life. After going to 16 rehabilitation programs and treatment centers he realized only God could fill the void. He came to the Recovery Point in Parkersburg, went to the Warehouse Church, was baptized and now attends there and volunteers in the community. He is due to be released from parole in a week. Adam had a similar story of growing up in a religious family in Cabell County WV, but got involved with Meth and other drugs. He overdosed 4 times and was pronounced dead for 15-20 minutes. He was in ICU in St. Mary's hospital. He was discharged from the military for drug use, but now is in the Recovery Point program. He too recognizes God is the answer. Travis is one of the supervisors at the Recovery Point. He has been through the program in Huntington and is now working with the program in Parkersburg. Recovery Point is a non-profit facility supported by grant money. There is no charge for the program. Recovery Point in Parkersburg is associated with several other recovery facilities in other states like South Carolina and Tennessee. The clients are accepted by phone or court order. It is a very structured program from detox to rehabilitation. They are involved in many community projects saying "we took from the community (literally money), now we want to pay back."

LOVE IN ACTION

Love in Action serves 270 patrons each month in our food pantry. We thank each volunteer who makes this feat possible. Also a BIG thanks to those who helped with BAM this past week. Many Christians think that we can make disciples without changing anything in our daily lives; that as we go about doing our own thing, disciples will be almost accidentally made. Just doing life with others will not alone lead to making and multiplying disciples. The ministry of Jesus is a great example. Jesus did life with others, but every step of the way he prayed, planned, and pursued intentionally the growth and transformation of his followers. Jesus lived a very intentional life. We as Christians should follow HIS example and live an intentional life.
