Discussion Questions:

1. We marvel at Nebuchadnezzar's fickleness and vanity, but do we ever behave like him? Have you ever forgotten God's work in your life and pursued recognition and power?
2. The Chaldeans are the villains of this story, but have you ever been ungracious towards immigrants (the Biblical word is "stranger")? How does God want you to treat them? Look up Leviticus 19:33-34 and Matthew 25:35.
3. How have you been tempted to idolatry in our culture? What kind of pressure from others have you faced? How did you resist?
4. Have you experienced a "But if not..." moment in your life? What did it look like to trust and obey God knowing His Word, but not all the details of His providential plan for your life?
5. How has God delivered you?
6. How can we help each other be more passionate about God's glory?
