Welcome	Mark McMurry	I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.		Lord, You Have Come to the Lakeshores
Ministry Opportunities	Lolo Pritchett			Lord, you have come to the lakeshore looking Neither for wealthy nor wise ones; You only asked me to follow humbly. O Lord, with your eyes you have searched me, And while smiling have spoken my name; Now my boat’s left on the shore line behind me; By your side I will seek other seas.

Today when we recognize and give thanks for the service and sacrifice of those who have served in the armed forces. These veterans and their families endure hardship, separation, and sometimes loss for the sake of keeping peace and fighting for justice around the world. Servicemen and women work to assist and build up communities and suffering populations around the world. Though we wish it were not necessary, they take up arms to protect and defend their country. We honor their commitment to duty and willingness to sacrifice of themselves. But let us also remember that these brave soldiers are only human. Even the strongest and bravest of human heroes stands in need of God's grace, wisdom and guidance. We give you thanks, O God, for all who serve and pray your continued guidance.				Message Where Do We Put the Exclamation Point?
