story behind the new stage design

For centuries, musical composers have employed a form called, “theme and variation.” It begins with a theme that is the main melody and is followed by one or more variations of that melody (such as W. A. Mozart’s “12 Variations in C Major ‘Ah vous dirai-je, Maman’ K.265 also known as “Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star”).

In this case, the starting “melody” was the stained glass window above the stage. It’s round shape is surrounded by a border resembling the cross. Those shapes were repeated to create the three columns you see on stage. Together they represent God in three persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Through the summer we will be using “Waking the Dead” by John Eldredge. Jesus said, “I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.” That’s the offer of Christianity, from God himself. “Waking the Dead” reveals the secret of finding that life, of identifying the fierce battle over our hearts, and of embracing all that God has in store. Come join us in the Family Life Center.
