PAUL'S PONDERERS

Although the Apostle John was called a Son of Thunder, he refers to himself as the one whom Jesus loved. Often you may hear John referred to as the "Apostle of Love". When you read the epistles, he wrote love is a primary focus.

¹¹ For this is the message you heard from the beginning: We should love one another. (I Jn 3:11)

²³ And this is his command: to believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and to love one another as he commanded us. (I Jn 3:23)

⁷ Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. ⁸ Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love. (I Jn 4:7-8)

God is love. Whoever lives in love lives in God, and God in them. (I Jn 4:16)

¹⁹ We love because he first loved us. (I Jn 4:19)

³ In fact, this is love for God: to keep his commands. (I Jn 5:3)

What? All this talk about love and then John throws in rules. I thought love superseded rules. If you truly love someone you don't place any rules on them. Right? How can rules and love go together?

God is love. Yet God expects us to show our love for him by following his rules. (Be careful! Follow His Rules not my rules.) Rules are disciplinary. Discipline is to disciple or to transform into the likeness of the one with the rules. Love and rules go together. "This is love: to keep his commands." You can't have one without the other. Love and obey. Love is active. Obey is transformative. Love is not what you say or feel, it is what you do. God gave his son.

Just Pondering

AVECES PIENSO

Salmo 103.

Bendice, alma mía, al Señor,
Y bendiga todo mi ser Su santo nombre.
Bendice, alma mía, al Señor,
Y no olvides ninguno de Sus beneficios.
El es el que perdona todas tus iniquidades,
El que sana todas tus enfermedades;
El que rescata de la fosa tu vida,
El que te corona de bondad y compasión;
El que colma de bienes tus años,
Para que tu juventud se renueve como el águila.

Yo soy tu hermano Gilberto.....
