Debbie and I are publishing Tidbits in the Pass Area. It is a fun paper with “tidbits” of information. A few weeks back there was a paragraph that read like this: “The diameter of our Milky Way Galaxy is approximately 100,000 light years from side to side. If the Milky Way was reduced to the size of the continental U.S., our solar system would be about the size of a quarter, and Earth would be the size of a grain of sand in the middle of the quarter.”

I cannot fathom 100,000 light years, but I can envision the continental United States as we have often traveled much of its length. That’s a long way to drive. And then to consider that our solar system would be about the size of a quarter and the earth a grain of sand.... How immense is our God? What is man that he should be concerned with him? We are a speck on a grain of sand. How insignificant we are. Yet the same God who sits on the throne of the heavens, the God of creation is the same God that said, “I will send my son to die for them, because I love them.”

“O Lord, my God, when I in awesome wonder Consider all the worlds Thy Hands have made
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder Thy power throughout the universe displayed
And when I think of God, His Son not sparing Sent Him to die, I scarce can take it in
That on the Cross, my burden gladly bearing He bled and died to take away my sin
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to Thee How great Thou art, how great Thou art!”
