

Church of The Crossroads Worship/Production Guidelines

SERVE: Even as Jesus came to serve rather than be served so we must be looking for opportunities to serve outside of the worship team. To do this we must be mature enough to keep ourselves built up so we can give rather than needing to be helped all the time. This requires us to be aware of people around us and reach out to them. We must be willing to do what needs to be done, even if it is not on the stage. In other words let's change "I could, I should, and I might" to "I will".

SKILL: Although we recognize the importance of a pure heart, the musician and vocalists also need to have enough skill so that they can follow the Holy Spirit. Musicians and vocalists should have open hearts to receive advice, correction, training, and should be committed to becoming proficiently skilled at their ministry. "Kenaniah the head Levite was in charge of the singing; that was his responsibility because he was skillful at it". (1 Chronicles 15:22) One does not need to be a professional musician to worship the Lord, but God honors the discipline of additional practice and preparation. "Failing to prepare is preparing for failure."

HONOR: One of the biggest parts of being apart of Crossroads Worship/Production is that we also honor everyone with a pure heart. Whether they be a team member, leader, or staff, we will choose to honor others as Jesus would.

COMMITMENT: Worship/Production team members should be actively involved at Church of The Crossroads and dedicated to Crossroads' vision. Being involved at Church of The Crossroads Worship/Production team requires you to actively attend services, as well as be involved in building relationships through Small Groups, along with giving of their tithes/offerings. Those who commit to serving on the worship team are asked to attend weekly rehearsals/devotions and are expected to do their best to make sure other commitments do not interfere with their ability to serve on the worship team. Because we value the importance of family, prospective worship team members should not join without the full support of their family.

ATTENDANCE: Attendance and punctuality are very important factors for being a member of the team. Weekly rehearsals are required for both worship/production team; on Sunday mornings prior to the service they are scheduled for.

When pertaining to Sunday rehearsals for the Worship team, you are required to attend the Sunday rehearsal prior to the week you are scheduled to serve.

SCHEDULING: At Church of The Crossroads, we plan a month at a time in most instances. We currently use Planning Center Services to schedule all services with a detailed outline of each song, rehearsal/service times, as well as both worship and production teams. Team members are encouraged to confirm or decline within a week of receiving the request. In the case of an emergency on a confirmed date to serve, please contact Paden Rossi or your assigned team leader.
