- The confusion and temptation of youth;
- The deceitful allure of the world;
- The intense pressure of peers.

... and temptations that will lure you:

- To magnify the role of emotion;
- To shame the reserved and conscience-guided;
- To major on minor priorities and minor on the major ones;
- To bring all your effort and hope for a good outcome to only a poor and frustrating end.

Whether you are contemplating a future relationship,

in the midst of a present relationship,
or want a future relationship, . . .

. . . you need your choices
to be based on God's Word

For His blessing and wisdom.
