Elder: To the church of God, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints together with all those who in every place call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours:

People: Praise the LORD!

Elder: It is good to sing praises to our God;

People: It is pleasant, and a song of praise is fitting.

Call to Confession

based on 1 John 2:1-2

The apostle John wrote:

My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. He is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

In the strength of this assurance, let us confess our sins to God.

“No Longer I Who Do It”

Romans 7:13-25

the Rev. Jeff Corbett

Why can't I get my act together?

- The law is not our problem, sin is. (vs. 13-14)
- Good intentions are not enough to solve the sin problem. (vs. 15-19)
- What you do is not the solution, but who we are made to be. (vs. 17 and 20)
- Christ's deliverance is enough to solve the sin problem. (vs. 24-25)

Lord God Almighty, Thou hast reconciled thyself to the world through the cross, and dost beseech men to accept reconciliation. Thou, the offended party acted first therefore I must deplore my foolish maliciousness. I live in contempt, anger, malice, and self-sufficiency. Thou hast taught me the necessity of a mediator as a king to rule me, a prophet to guide me, as a priest to take away my sin and death, and this by faith in thy beloved Son who teaches me not to try to rule and conquer sin, but to cleave to the one who will do all for me. Help me to make use of Christ's work of salvation as the ground of peace, and of thy favor to, and acceptance of me the sinner, so that I may live always near the cross. In the name of Christ, Amen.

Ecclesiastes 5:1-17 (ESV)

Guard your steps when you go to the house of God. To draw near to listen is better than to offer the sacrifice of fools, for they do not know that they are doing evil.

Be not rash with your mouth, nor let your heart be hasty to utter a word before God,

For God is in heaven and you are on earth. Therefore let your words be few.

For a dream comes with much business, and a fool's voice with many words.

When you make a vow to God, do not delay paying it; for He has no pleasure in fools. Pay what you vow;

It is better that you should not vow than that you should vow and not pay.

Let not your mouth lead you into sin, and do not say before the messenger that it was a mistake. Why should God be angry at your voice and destroy the work of your hands?

For when dreams increase and words grow many, there is vanity; but God is the one you must fear.

If you see in a province the oppression of the poor and the violation of justice and righteousness, do not be amazed at the matter, for the high official is watched by a higher, and there are yet higher ones over them. But this is gain for a land in every way: a king committed to cultivated fields. He who loves money will not be satisfied with money, nor he who loves wealth with his income; this also is vanity.

When goods increase, they increase who eat them, and what advantage has their owner but to see them with his eyes?

Sweet is the sleep of a laborer, whether he eats little or much, but the full stomach of the rich will not let him sleep.

There is a grievous evil that I have seen under the sun; riches were kept by their owner to his hurt,

And those riches were lost in a bad venture. And he is father of a son, but he has nothing in his hand.

As he came from his mother's womb he shall go again.

Naked as he came; and shall take nothing for his toil that he may carry away in his hand.

This also is a grievous evil: just as he came, so shall he go,

And what gain is there to him who toils for the wind?

Moreover, all his days he eats in darkness in much vexation and sickness and anger.

TUNE: ARLINGTON C.M.
(new Trinity Hymnal, p. 154)
("Thou Art the Way")

Verses 3, 5, 10-11, 16-17

Behold, they for my life lay wait;
Fierce men against me run;
But not for my transgression, LORD,
Nor sin that I have done.

Arise to punish nations all,
Thou God of Is-ra-el.
No mercy show to any who Deceitfully rebel.

In all His lovingkindness great
My God will meet with me.
God will permit me on my foes
To look triumphantly.

But lest my people should forget,
Do not the wicked slay,
But bring them down, O Lord, our Shield,
And scatter them away.

But of Thy strength I'll sing aloud,
At morn Thy mercy praise;
For Thou hast been my refuge high,
My fort in evil days.

O Thou Who art my strength, I will
Sing praises unto Thee;
For God is my defense, the God
Of grace He is to me.
