

ADAM

(Genesis 2:1-4:26)

Adam was formed from dust. God breathed life into his nostrils. Adam was placed in the Garden of Eden and told to work it and take care of it.

God took a rib from Adam's side and made a woman, Eve, to be his wife.

God told Adam to eat from any tree in the garden---except one, the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

Adam gave names to birds and animals.

Satan, in the form of a serpent, lied to Eve, tempting her to eat of the forbidden fruit. She did so, and gave some to Adam, who also ate it.

They suddenly became aware of their nakedness and hid from God as he came walking in the garden. Adam and Eve were punished by being driven from the garden. Life became much harder for them.

Adam and Eve had 2 sons, Cain and Abel, who both offered sacrifices to God, but for some reason God was not pleased with the sacrifice of Cain. Cain became jealous of his brother and killed him.

Adam and Eve had other sons and daughters who are not named, plus one other son who is named—Seth. Adam lived a total of 930 years.
