

Life Group Discussion Guide

Honest to God Week 3: Relentlessly Faithful

1. Getting Started

Have you ever had someone let you down when you were really counting on them? Without sharing anything too personal, what made that experience difficult, and what did you learn from it?

2. Read Exodus 32:1–6 and Exodus 33:13–15

The Israelites turned away from God by worshiping the golden calf, yet Moses continued seeking God and asking for His presence.

- What stands out to you about Moses' response to the people's unfaithfulness?
- What can we learn from his example when people disappoint us?

3. Read Exodus 33:13

Moses prayed, “Teach me your ways so I may know you.”

- What's the difference between knowing about God and truly knowing God?
- What helps you develop a deeper relationship with Him beyond simply learning biblical information?

4. Read James 1:5 and Proverbs 3:5–6

Moses remained teachable, even after years of walking with God.

- Why can it be difficult to remain teachable when we're disappointed, hurt, or convinced we already know what needs to happen?
- Where might God be inviting you to trust Him and learn from Him right now?

5. Read 2 Timothy 2:11–13

Verse 13 reminds us that even when we are faithless, God remains faithful.

- How does this truth shape the way you view God when you or someone else falls short?
- How can we hold on to God's faithfulness without minimizing the seriousness of sin or its consequences?

6. Read Romans 12:17–21

God calls us to respond to others differently than the world might expect.

- When someone has hurt or disappointed you, what does it look like to remain faithful to Jesus in your response?
- How can you show grace while still maintaining healthy boundaries?

7. Read Romans 8:38–39 and Philippians 1:6

Nothing can separate us from God's love in Christ, and God continues His work in us. God is relentlessly faithful, even when people around you aren't.

- Is there a situation where you need to stop allowing someone else's choices to affect your walk with God?
- What is one practical step you can take this week to draw closer to Jesus and trust His faithfulness?

Closing Prayer

Invite everyone to share one area where they need to trust God's faithfulness this week. Pray that God will help your group know Him more deeply, respond to others with the character of Jesus, and remain faithful even when others disappoint them.