DISSONANCE

As we gather today, we are reminded how we each yearn for simple and obvious explanations without dissonance. This week we are confronted with Jesus' approach to important things like love, holiness, and even what we know!

Prelude Sandra Quiring, Pianist

Welcome & Call to Worship Mark Janzen
(Congregation read bold print)

All: We come to worship

One: *With expectations that may or may not be met;
with questions that might be answered;
and answers that might be questioned.*

All: We come seeking God.

One: *Seeking a taste of truth;
seeking a glimpse of divine presence;
seeking to make sense of the world.*

All: We come to journey with Jesus,

One: *and allow ourselves to be disarmed and inspired,
moved and confused*

by the Spirit of Christ among us and within us.

All: Let us worship God.

* "We Gather Together" HWB 17

John 13:1-17

It was just before the Passover Festival. Jesus knew that the hour had come for him to leave this world and got to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end.

The evening meal was in progress, and the devil had already prompted Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, to betray Jesus. Jesus knew that the Father had put all things under his power, and that he had come from God and was returning to God; so he got up from the meal, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around his waist. After that, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped around him.

He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?"

Jesus replied, "You do not realize now what I am doing, but later you will understand."

"No," said Peter, "you shall never wash my feet."

Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no part with me."

"Then, Lord," Simon Peter replied, "not just my feet but my hands and my head as well!"

Jesus answered, "Those who have had a bath need only to wash their feet; their whole body is clean. And you are clean, though not every one of you." For he knew who was going to betray him, and that was why he said not every one was clean.

When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his place. "Do you understand what I have done for you?" he asked them. "You call me 'Teacher' and 'Lord,' and rightly so, for that is what I am. Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet. I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you. Very truly I tell you, no servant is greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them.
