CELEBRATION OF LIFE

Katherine Quiring Janzen Siebert, age 99, of Henderson, Nebraska, entered into the presence of her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, August 29, 2023. Katherine was born to Dietrich C. and Katharina Buller Quiring on June 3, 1924.

Katherine was born, raised, and lived in Henderson her entire life. She was the fifth of eleven children, growing up on a farm four miles east of Henderson. She was raised by parents who loved the Lord and provided her a solid Christian foundation. There were two things they never missed, Sunday morning worship service and Sunday evening youth activities at church. She enjoyed her childhood years on the farm even though it was during the depression years when crops were poor because of the lack of rain and money was scarce. She was taught to work hard with chores, gardening, and helping in the fields.

Katherine trusted in Jesus Christ as her Savior and Lord in 1941 when she was 17 years old at a Billy Sunday revival meeting in Sioux City, Iowa. She had been helping Uncle Pete and Aunt Elsie Buller, who were living in Iowa, who had encouraged her to trust Christ. Later she was baptized upon her profession of faith in Jesus and became a member of Bethesda Mennonite Church in Henderson. John 1:12 became the verse she claimed when she gave her heart to the Lord. "But as many as receive Him, to them He gave the power to become children of God, even to them that believe on His name."

After graduating from Henderson High School in 1943, Katherine attended York College and received a teaching certificate. She taught in a one room country school two ½ miles north of Henderson for three years. On September 9, 1945, she met Sam R. Janzen of Leigh, Kansas, who was in Henderson helping with corn harvest. They were married on May 29, 1946, and moved to a farm west of Henderson later that summer. In 1952 they moved to her parents farm four miles east of Henderson where they would work together on the farm and raise their family. The Lord blessed Sam and Katherine with three sons and one daughter: Ronald, Dale, Kenneth, and Arlene. Sam and Katherine enjoyed 50 years of marriage together when Sam died March 13, 1997.

Katherine married Marvin Siebert of Henderson on August 14, 1999, and moved from the farm to Henderson. The Lord blessed their marriage for 24 years. She enjoyed her new family as well as cooking, baking, gardening, sewing, quilting, and being with family. She was always busy serving others and hosting guests in their home.

She is preceded in death by her first husband, Sam Janzen, her daughter Arlene Knott, her parents, and her brothers and sisters; Dietrich, Sara, Peter, Henry, Marie, Aaron, Daniel, David, Elizabeth, and Walter.

Those left to cherish her memory are her husband Marvin Siebert, sons Ronald L. Janzen of Henderson, Dale L. and Susan Janzen of Central City, Kenneth L. and Brenda Janzen of Henderson, son-in-law James and Dawn Knott of Lincoln; grandchildren Andrew (Amy) Janzen, Jennifer (Joe) Sampson, Rebecca (Kevin) Schultz, Tracy (Justin) Goertzen, Nathan (Megan) Janzen, Lisa (John) Birky, Jeremy (Amy) Janzen, Jason (Amy) Janzen, Ashley (John) Goertzen, Joshua Knott (friend Angie), Kayla (Jeremy) Sperling, Michael Knott (friend Claire), Hannah Knott (friend Brian); 15 grandchildren; 36 great-grandchildren; and two great, great grandchildren; step-children Delmer Siebert, Sharlene Doell, Darrel Siebert, and Shirley Ulrich of Henderson, and Mary (Dennis) Osborne of York; seven step grandchildren; 19 step great-grandchildren; and sisters-in-law Esther Quiring and Lavina Quiring.
