CELEBRATION OF LIFE

Lynette Donna Siebert was born on October 14, 1955 to Glenn and Donna Rathje. She attended Faith Lutheran Church and upon her profession of faith was baptized at age 16. She attended school in York and graduated in 1973. After graduation she went to work in Henderson where she met her husband Byron. They were married on April 12, 1975.

They moved to Henderson and Lynette became a member of Bethesda Mennonite Church. Lynette worked as a CNA and helped on the farm. She later began cleaning homes and businesses as long as her health allowed.

They were blessed with two children, Hannah and Cole. At age 50, she had the opportunity to be a mother again for Carter and it brought her a great amount of joy. She also spent a great deal of time with Elliot and thought of her more as a daughter than a grandchild.

In her twenties and thirties, Lynette enjoyed playing volleyball and racquetball with friends. She also loved her plants and pets. She enjoyed cooking and taking care of her family. And one of her favorite things was attending her children and grandchildren's events. Even when it became difficult for her to get around, she went to as many of Carter's and Elliot's games as she could and always cherished her time with Elliot. She was preceded in death by her parents, Glenn and Donna Rathje, parents-in-law Carl and Dinah Siebert and Sister-in-law Cynthia Friesen.

She is survived by her children, Hannah (Ben) Glaser of Chicago, Illinois; Cole (Veronica) Siebert of York and Carter Siebert of Henderson; grandchildren, Elliot Siebert of Ansley and Francie and Jonah Glaser of Chicago, Illinois; brother, Gary (Mary) Rathje of Denver, Colorado; sister, Gloria (Ron) Boyes of Geneva; sisters-in-law, Karen Kroeker of Henderson, GayAnn Wagner of Lincoln and Shelly Siebert of Las Vegas, Nevada and brother-in-law, Kevin (Teresa) Siebert of Seward.
