What is a DNow Weekend?

DNow is a weekend retreat of worship, Bible study, fellowship, recreation, and discipleship.

At DNow, our goals is that students will...

- Consider if they have a personal relationship with God
- Be challenged to make Jesus Lord of their lives
- Experience community by building relationships with each other
- Be challenged to grow deeper in their relationship and pursuit of Christ
- Invite their unchurched friends so that they might hear the gospel for the first time

How it Works?

- Register ONLINE (use the QR code or go to fbcstephenville.org/connect/youth-ministry) or turn in the attached form
- Students will check-in and bring their luggage to the Youth Room on Friday Night
- Student will stay with their small group and small group leader in a church member's home Friday & Saturday night
- We will gather during the day and evenings for Worship & Bible study led by Nick Gainey Band & Josh Humbert, food, service and recreation. Students will break into small groups for discipleship studies with adult small group leaders
- DNow ends with our Sunday morning worship service

Registration

- Cost is $40 per person or $80 max per family is for your shirt, materials, recreation and food.
- Register online or with the paper form. Pay by Cash or Check (made out to FBC Stephenville)
- Registration & Payment are due NO LATER than April 14 to guarantee your DNow shirt
- If money is an issue, talk to Ryan. Money WILL NOT prevent anyone from attending DNow

What to Bring

- Clothes for Worship and Recreation – For 2 Days
- If your host home has a pool, one piece swimsuits or wear a dark colored shirt
- Toiletries (soap, shampoo, toothbrush, deodorant, towel, etc.)
- Sleeping Bag & Pillow (plan to sleep on the floor of your host home)
- BIBLE, pen/pencil, journal/notebook
