Connect  Grow  Serve

'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.' The second is this: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no commandment greater than these.
Mark 12:30-31

Morning Worship

Prelude - Festival Intrada, Jeffrey Honoré, Wesley Ringers

Greeting & Announcements

Opening Hymn - To God Be the Glory, #98 (vs. 1-3)

Call to Worship

Make a joyful noise to God, all the earth.

Sing your praise to the glory of God's name.

Great and awesome are the works of the Lord.

The whole universe proclaims God's power.

We gather to remember what the Divine has revealed to us.

Come to discover what God is still doing among us.

God is faithful, loving and just in all things.

The promises of the Lord are trustworthy and true.

Opening Prayer

Unison Prayer of Confession

Ever-forgiving God, once more we seek your pardon and protection. We find ourselves separated from the best we know. We've focused so much of our attention on our own concerns that we've neglected the welfare of our world. We see our own hardships more readily than we feel the vast suffering around us. It is too easy to forget all the blessings and mercies we've already received. Restore us again to gratefulness, Lord, and to appreciating your forgiveness. Hear now our individual confessions in the silence...

Assurance of Forgiveness

Special Music - Through It All (Words and music by Andre Crouch.

Doxology #95

Offering Prayer

Stewardship Video - Elsie Beard

Special Music - Let There Be Peace on Earth, arr. Arnold B. Sherman, Wesley Ringers

Scriptures - Psalm 66:1-12, p. 534; *Luke 17:11-19, p. 966

Book Sisters' Field Trip!

October 12 the Book Sisters will be traveling to Monroe to visit a cheese factory and have lunch. Meet at RUMC after 10:00 AM worship service.

Join the Book Sisters on October 28th at 6:00 PM to discuss The Briar Club, by Kate Quinn.

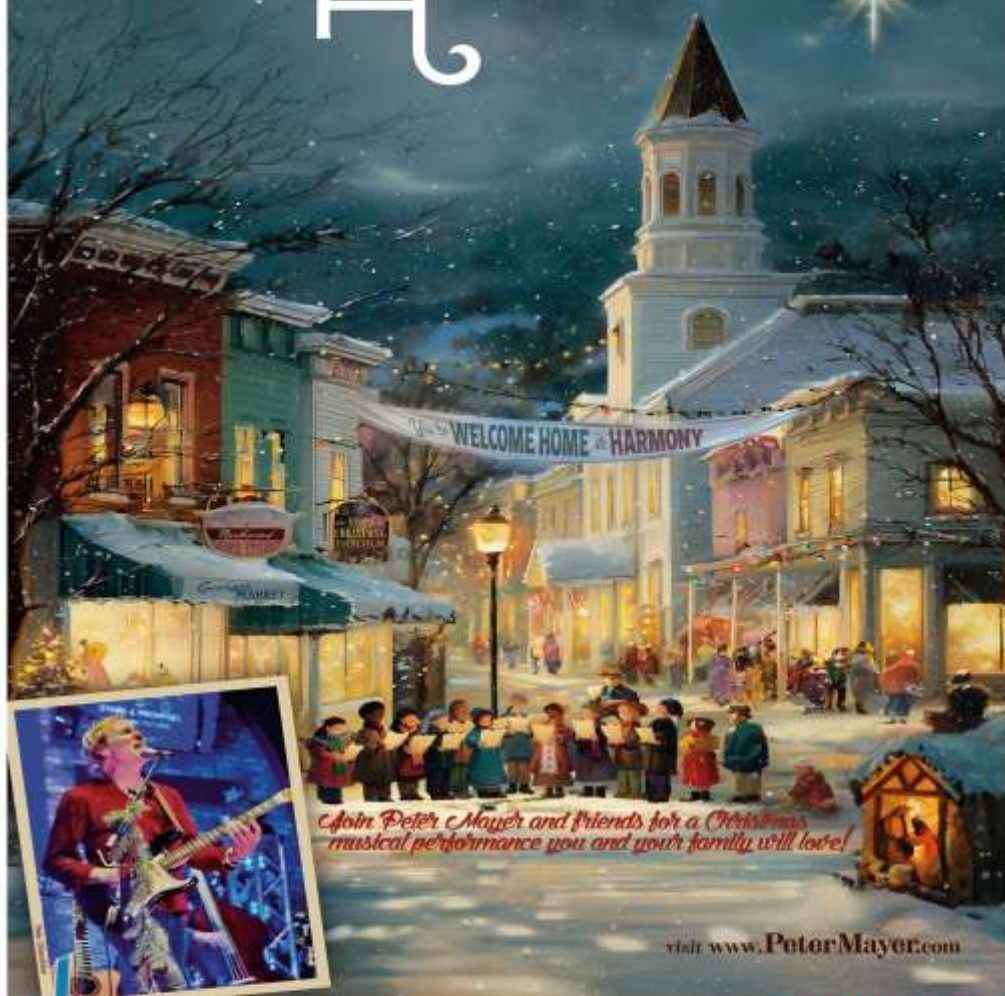

A haunting and powerful story of female friendships and secrets in a Washington, D.C. boardinghouse during the McCarthy era. At Briarwood House, a down-at-the-heels all-female boardinghouse in the heart of the nation's capital, secrets hide behind white picket fences. But when the lovely, mysterious widow Grace March moves into the attic, she draws her oddball collection of neighbors into unlikely friendship. An English perfect wife and mother, a police officer's entangled with a shadowy gangster; a frustrated baseball star and a McCarthy supporter all find common ground.

It's terrible to feel like you're out of chances in life. And that's exactly why those who go to the Rockford Rescue Mission are often frustrated, disheartened... and rescue + recover + restore even frightened. All other options are gone. There's no one and nowhere to turn for help. They go to the Rockford Rescue Mission with heavy hearts... and often without hope that new life is possible through Jesus.

The Rockford Rescue Mission provides second, third and all the chances they need. The Mission reaches out to churches like ours to share that grace-filled approach with those who are homeless, hungry, abused, and addicted. In response to their need, we are hosting a chapel and meal service at the Rockford Rescue Mission on Sunday, October 19th. The chapel portion of the service includes a prayer, a message and songs by our own worship music group Mahalo.

That said, help is needed to assemble and serve 200 sack lunches. Please sign up in the Narthex to provide food items for the lunches or to help make sandwiches and pack the bags on October 18th at the Rockford Rescue Mission.

Food items for the sack lunches should be brought to the Harman Hall kitchen by Friday, October 17th.
(Loaves of bread, lunch meat, individually packaged cookies and chips, fruit cups)
