

1 Corinthians 1, page 1131 Cyrus Rettmann September 13, 2026

We are destined to divide unless we keep aligned with Christ

A letter to a church in need of correction and change, adjustment and _____.

CONTEXT -

~49AD Paul's Second Missionary Journey (Acts 16-18)

Corinth was a _____ port city, an _____ center,
and had significant _____ diversity.

This created an abundance of _____ opportunity amongst
_____.

Acts 18:1-17

Paul invested _____ in Corinth, _____ the word of God, _____ the Gospel, _____ some,
and _____ from the local Jews.

1 Cor 1:1-9

Paul greets and reminds the church it is _____ and by God's grace they are _____.

They are the _____, saints _____, called into _____ of His Son.

1 Cor 1:10-17

v10-12—Paul receives a report, pleads for believers to be _____ in their _____ and _____ in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

v13-16—Paul emphasizes that the crucifixion of Christ is what can _____. Don't get _____ anyone besides Jesus.

v17—Paul speaks with clarity, _____ is the
_____. It is _____!!

How will you _____ with Christ?

CARRYING on the CONVERSATION -

What stood out to you from this text and sermon?

How will you grow closer to God? How will you help others along the way?

What distracts you from staying aligned with Jesus?
Who distracts you from staying aligned with Jesus?