

If you're looking to lead a curriculum based Small Group, we have plenty to choose from. Here's a list of highly recommended and diverse curriculum and book studies to choose from. If you have any questions, be sure to reach out to the Small Groups Team at your campus.

Highlands' Curriculum

Freedom books available through campus Small Groups Team during launch of spring and fall semesters

Fresh Start

Video teaching series with discussion designed to give everyone space to talk about who God is and what a relationship with Jesus means. Perfect for those new to the Christian faith and those needing a fresh start in their relationship with Jesus.

Whether you have never participated in 21 Days of Prayer, are still learning how to pray, or are a prayer warrior, this group will expand your prayer life through powerful prayer, worship, encouraging messages, and great discussion.

Video downloads available once your Small Group is registered and approved

Prayer Force

Designed to study what it means to be an intercessor and how to align with God's vision for our church while developing a lifestyle of prayer. We will learn about the power of the Holy Spirit, the Word, and coming in agreement.

Prayer Force books available through campus Small Groups Team during launch of spring and fall semesters

Sunday Message Discussion Guide

Lead your group through a guided discussion of Sunday's message. Discussion guide notes are available for download by 4 pm on Mondays.

PDF download available under the video message on churchofthehighlands/media

Man to Man

God did not design us to go through this life alone. Proverbs 27:17 says, "As iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens another". Jesus modeled this when he made himself a servant and walked in intentional relationships.
