September

~ From Our Pastor ~

September is a month of beginnings. Though school begins here in the last week of August, traditionally September was the beginning of the new school year. In our community, September is the month when things begin to quiet down a bit, given that the summer vacation season comes to an end. We begin to see a little less traffic (especially during the week), local restaurants are less crowded, and we begin to feel again that we live in a small, yet growing, community.

In Anglo-Saxon times in early medieval England, the old month of "Halilgmonath," or (literally) "Holy Month," began in September. No one knows for certain why it was called "Holy Month," but it may well have been because it coincided with the grain harvest. A good harvest meant food, and food meant life, and so perhaps this is why they saw this season as a "holy" time.

In our congregation, September is also a time of new beginnings. Our Sunday School year begins, other study opportunities begin, new activities have their "kick-off." Perhaps September could be a "Holy Month" for us, if we take advantage of the offerings of our congregation, offerings you will read about in this month's newsletter. A lot is happening in September.

Also, this month we will kick off our annual stewardship campaign, and our congregation's Nominating Committee will be at work looking for those willing to serve as Elders and Deacons. In September we will hold our annual yard sale for the Lamar McKee Scholarship Fund. This truly is a month of "beginnings" for us at Oak Island Evangelical Presbyterian Church!

I hope to see you around during this "Holy Month"!

Grace and Peace,
Pastor Walter L. Taylor

I will bless the LORD at all times; his praise shall continually be in my mouth. My soul makes its boast in the LORD; Let the humble hear and be glad. Oh, magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt his name together! (Psalms 34 :1-4)

- September 7

Matthew 23:1-39: “The Lamentation of Jesus”

Jesus pronounces judgment over the Pharisees and makes his lament over Jerusalem. How are we to read these judgments and this lament today? Are we able to see our own failures in the light of theirs?

Hymns:	2	O Worship the King
	425	Bread of the World in Mercy Broken
	597	Though I May Speak with Bravest Fire

- September 14

Matthew 24:1-35: “The ‘End Times’”

The disciples ask Jesus about the destruction of the temple and the “end times.”

Jesus begins by talking about what world history will look like for the Christian, and thus how we are to look on the claims of those who purport to know what the “end times” will look like.

Hymns:	53	Praise to the Lord, the Almighty
	87	The Lord’s My Shepherd, I’ll Not Want
	712	O God of Love, O King of Peace

- September 21

“No One Knows”: Matthew 24:36-51

Jesus states that on one knows the day and hour of “coming of the Son of Man.” Here Jesus makes the point that the consummation of the ages is in the hands of God alone.

Hymns:	38	Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise
	369	Shout, for the Blessed Jesus Reigns
	367	The Lord Will Come and Not Be Slow

- September 28:

Parable of the Ten Virgins: Matthew 25:1-13

Jesus uses the story of a marriage feast to call his follows to be ready for his coming. Of course, his coming can take different forms in our life and in our world, and such a “coming” in our life rarely appears on our agenda.

Hymns:	181	We Come, O Christ, to You
	317	Wake, Awake, for Night Is Flying
	320	Rejoice, All Ye Believers

2025 Fall Adult Sunday School Schedule

Sunday, September 7 9:15 a.m.

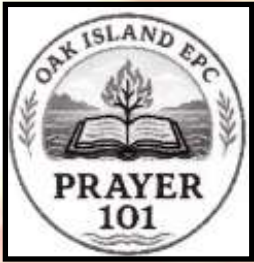

Meet & Greet

We have some exiting plans for this Fall. We will kick off the Fall season with a Sunday School Meet & Greet. This meeting will be an informal time to reconnect after the summer break and to hear about the studies we have planned through the end of 2025. Everyone is invited; Sunday School regulars and anyone interested in learning about the Scriptures and deepening our faith in Christ.

Sunday, September 14 and September 21 9:15 a.m.

Allison Pickard

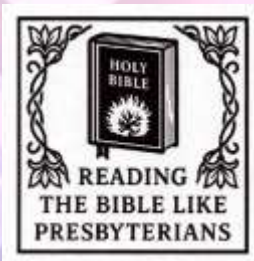

Prayer is a way for us as Christians to connect with God. It is a central practice in our faith tradition. Prayer can strengthen our relationship with God. It can offer comfort, peace and hope during challenging times. Prayer gives us a time to praise God's greatness and goodness, express our gratitude to him for blessings we have received, ask for God's guidance, help and protection, and express our needs and concerns to him. It can foster gratitude and a greater awareness of God's presence in our lives. Communal prayer can strengthen bonds between believers and create a sense of shared faith and purpose.

The reality is though that it is not necessarily an easy and natural thing for us to do, especially not when it comes to praying in a group setting. Allison will give us some easy-to-use tools for our prayer time, whether it is personal or communal. Please don't miss this opportunity to enrich your prayer life!

Sunday, September 28 - October 19 9:15 a.m.

Pastor Walter Taylor

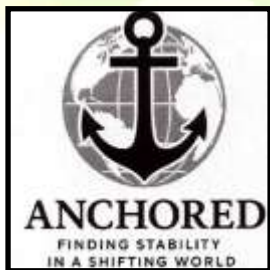

When it comes to reading the Bible, different denominations and church traditions approach it differently. While one often hears the claim that someone "just teaches the Bible and the Bible alone," the fact is that it is more complicated than that. The Bible is not an "easy" book. It comes to us from different times, different places, and covers a long span of history. It was written in languages very different from our own. One of the blessings of being a Presbyterian (which is a part of the Reformed Tradition) is that we are a part of a living theological tradition, one that takes education seriously.

This class will be a 4-week Sunday School on how to read the Bible and make sense of it. Pastor Taylor will lay out some of the guidance the best of the Reformed Tradition gives us about reading Scripture, and where our Reformed Tradition differs from other ways of reading the Bible that are common in America today (for example, "Dispensationalism," made all too popular by the "Left Behind" series.) Come and join us and let us explore the Bible as we learn how to "rightly divide the Word of Truth."

Sunday, October 26, November 2, 16, 23 and 30, and December 7 & 14 9:15 a.m.Charles Bogardus

Life often feels unsteady - but faith in Christ gives us something solid to hold on to. In this 7-week Sunday School class, we'll look at how faith in Christ brings real lasting benefits to the Christian believer. We'll cover seven themes - Freedom, Meaning, Identity, Satisfaction, Hope, Community and Peace. Please join us to explore how our faith gives us "hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure."

November 9 9:15 a.m.*Dirk Mroczek*Sunday Morning's 10:05 a.m.—10:20 a.m.Pre- Service Prayer

Beginning weekly on Sunday morning, September 28, in the Disciples Room, we will commence a regular group prayer meeting. Given the brevity of this meeting, our prayers will be laser-focused on God's glory, the purity of worship, and the edification of the saints. With the worship service in mind, we will pray for:

1. God-Honoring Worship
2. The Preaching of the Word
3. The Congregation's Hearts
4. Repentance and Humility
5. The Work of the Holy Spirit
6. Love & Unity Within the Body
7. Local Evangelistic Reach of the Church & for the Nations

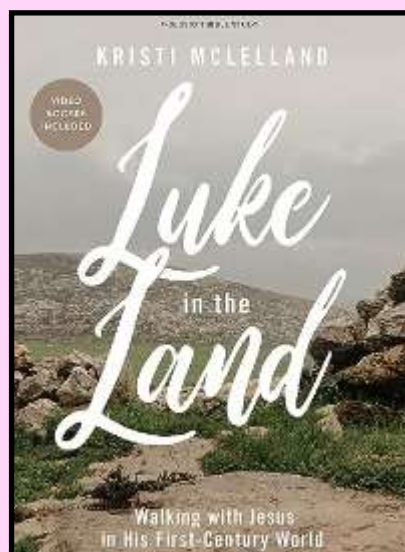

Everyone is invited to join us: elders, deacons, church members & regular attenders. Whether you've previously participated in a church prayer meeting, or not; please join us, even if only to pray silently.

We will keep these two Scripture verses in mind:

Psalm 29:2 - "Ascribe to the Lord the glory due his name; worship the Lord in the splendor of holiness."

Hebrews 12:28 - "Therefore let us be grateful for receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, and thus let us offer to God acceptable worship, with reverence and awe."

WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY

Our Women's Bible Study group will start the Fall season on Monday, September 8, at 7:00 p.m. in the Disciples Room. During the summer months we have read "Walking in the Dust of Rabbi Jesus: How the Jewish Words of Jesus Can Change Your Life", by Lois Tverberg. We will discuss what we have read during our first meeting.

On Monday, September 15, we will begin another study by Kristi McLelland, "Luke in the Land: Walking with Jesus in His First Century World". We enjoyed Kristi's book "Jesus and Women" so much, that the decision was made to study another one of her insightful books!

With this new study, we will travel through Israel in seven video sessions filmed in Bethlehem, the Sea of Galilee, Jerusalem, and more to see the gospel story in a whole new way. We will gain a deeper understanding of stories of Jesus's life from a first-century point of view and explore cultural and historical concepts that will give new perspective on well-known biblical stories. Kristi McLelland will deepen the way we read the accounts of Jesus. It will take us two or three weeks to study each of the chapters.

Buy a book (Amazon, Christian Book Distributors) and join us this Fall! You will be surprised how many new insights you will gain! For more information, contact Rev. Agnes Taylor @ 910-278-9741.

BOOKS AND COFFEE

Our Books and Coffee group will resume meeting on Tuesday, September 30th, at 10:00 a.m. in the Disciples Room. We will continue our in-depth study of Nancy Guthrie's book "Blessed: Experiencing the Promise of the Book of Revelation".

Blessed covers the full text of the book of Revelation, exploring its call to patient endurance as God's sovereign plans for judgment and salvation are worked out in the world. This book shows that Revelation is less about when Jesus will return and more about who we are to be, what we are to do, and what we can expect to endure as we wait for Jesus to return to establish his kingdom in the new creation.

With a friendly and engaging tone, Blessed takes the fear, intimidation, and confusion away from studying Revelation, providing a solid and accessible resource that we can use to study this important yet often avoided book.

The group does not meet every Tuesday, but whenever our busy schedules allow us to gather. We invite you to join us on a journey to discover the blessings of the book of Revelation! We are currently studying chapter 9 (there are 12 chapters).

For more information, contact Rev. Agnes Taylor @ 910-278-9741.

OUR NURSERY NEEDS YOU !!

We may not have little ones in our Nursery on a weekly basis, but when they and their parents join us for worship, we would like to be able to welcome them with open arms in a safe, welcoming environment!

We are blessed to have a beautiful, well-equipped Nursery, plus a wonderful, experienced Nursery Worker, Keena Knox, but what we do NOT have are enough volunteers to assist Keena.

Nursery

For reasons of legal liability, we NEED to have two adults over 18 in the Nursery if we have a child or children, so the future of our Nursery depends on our congregation members.

Will you be a blessing to families with young children?
There is a sign-up sheet on the small bulletin board right next to the Nursery.

Let's fill the open slots together!

Turtle Talk – July 12th

Our Men's Fellowship sponsored a community event in July - a Turtle Talk- where a free pancake breakfast was provided for all. Dr. Rich Lane informed friends and guests about our turtles, and the good work of the Oak Island Sea Turtle Protection Program. The presentation was well received. Slides, models, and biologic specimens were used to facilitate discussion. A great question and answer session followed. Attendees left with a better understanding of turtle conservation. Several people inquired about volunteering for the sea turtle program.

Many thanks to the men of the church who set up the event, prepared the breakfast and welcomed our guests. We also invited our guests to consider visiting OIEPC and shared information about our church.

From the Heart

We hope you are all having a wonderful summer. As the days are counting down until "Fall" we wanted to tell you about our upcoming events. As you know, we have been collecting for the Brunswick Animal Shelter over the summer.

Annual Trip to BCSO Animal Shelter Held on Saturday, August 23rd

We loaded the vehicles with the largest load of goodies we have ever collected and drove to unload and tour the facility.

Next "From the Heart" Meeting:
September 14th right after church in the Disciples classroom

We will be discussing activities for the new year. We have been asked to do another Sunday Luncheon Fund Raiser around the October timeframe. Come with any ideas you have for new projects, and we will lay out our plan for the year 2025-2026. Blessings, Sue and Agnes

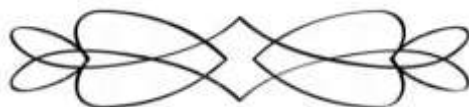

WILL YOU HOST A OIEPC FELLOWSHIP TIME?

Do you enjoy our Fellowship Time after the worship service, and the opportunity it gives to connect with others in our congregation? Why not sign up to be the host for one of our Fellowship Times? Or how about co-hosting it with someone else?

You would be responsible for providing some simple goodies (a plate of cookies will do just fine!), and if needed some beverages to be enjoyed during our time of fellowship. Need help with the coffee maker? No problem! Lisa Milligan or Agnes Taylor will be happy to assist you!

A sign-up sheet is located on the long table in the Fellowship Hall.
We invite you to participate in this ministry of welcome and fellowship!

In Munich, American foreign correspondent Evelyn Brand is determined to prove herself in her male-dominated profession---and spotlight the growing tyranny in Nazi Germany. Working on his Ph.D. in German, fellow American Peter Lang is impressed by Germany's prosperity and order. But when the Reich's brutality shows itself, will he work for its downfall instead? Follow these two in Sarah Sundin's When Twilight Breaks.

In the wake of a broken engagement and the death of her last surviving family member, romance novelist Maya Reynolds moves to the haven of Coral Cove, North Carolina, to take over her great-aunt's toy store. Some of her grief is immediately eased when she is talked into adopting a kitten by eight-year-old Ashlyn. Ashlyn's dad, local veterinarian Brody Tanner, is quickly smitten by the newest resident of his hometown—but as a single father, his focus is entirely on his little girl, and a romantic entanglement with Maya is not a distraction he is looking for. The View from Coral Cove is by Amy Clipston.

MARTHA'S CIRCLE

Hi everyone! Did you have a sizzling summer? Praise the Lord for fans and air-conditioning!

Martha's Circle would like to thank each of you who participated in the School Supply Drive this year. There were so many supplies for the children of Southern Brunswick County! We only pray they have a successful school year at Southport Elementary. The school staff are so grateful to everyone who participated.

A special thank you to Marshall Scott who helped deliver the boxes of supplies. The boxes and bags were filled to brim and heavy. Thank you again.

Monday, September 8 at 11 a.m.

Martha's Circle's 2025 - 2026 year will begin. We are excited about the upcoming year and invite all women of OIEPC (members and friends) to join us for laughter, tears, delicious food, and wonderful fellowship.

We will miss our good friend and Circle Sister, Mary Snead. May she rest in Peace with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Another Special thank you to Colleen Gerlach and the Sanctuary Committee for their work in giving OIEPC a beautiful and restful Sanctuary. It took a great deal of work! We gratefully remember Libba Motsinger for her bequest to OIEPC, a wonderful legacy for our comfort.

Please mark 9-8 on your calendars and join us. Blessings and love, Ann Hunt Smith, Moderator Cornerstone Bible College in the Netherlands trains future missionaries from all over the world and is supported, in part, by the prayers and financial gifts of OIEPC. This past May, our church sent a team consisting of Robert Hunt, Buzz and Susan Smith and Dirk Mroczek to serve at the college.

The main project was to install a new piping system to carry heat to the radiators around campus. This project had been on the drawing board for some time, as it presented many challenges. Our team served under the direction of friends from the Netherlands and Germany, and by the grace of God much was accomplished in a relatively short time.

Ceiling panels needed to be removed, century old brick and concrete walls needed to be drilled through, pipes had to be measured, cut, prepped and fitted together around corners, through rooms and down hallways. Much of the work had to be done while standing on ladders or scaffolding and we were frequently covered with dust. In addition to assisting with the main project, Susan also helped with gardening, childcare and kitchen duties.

The students, staff and leadership encouraged our team daily and expressed their gratitude for all that was being done. We got to know the students better as we heard personal testimonies, attended chapels and shared meals. We had time too, to bike and hike through the beautiful countryside. Scott and Lydie Fogle, showed us tremendous hospitality throughout our stay. Please keep them in your prayers. We were very impressed with the hearts of students to spread the gospel and by their sincere devotion to Christ and their thoughtfulness of one another. It was a joy for each of us on the OIEPC team to serve our Lord and to see the great work of God that is ongoing!
