Study Questions to Go Deeper with God:

Read Colossians 4:2-4 on the challenge of prayer. How does a life devoted to prayer keep us grounded in grace rather than drifting into self-reliance, anxiety, or spiritual complacency? What specific habits help you remain watchful and thankful in prayer? How might your evangelistic opportunities change if prayer became your first response rather than your last resort? Additional scriptures to explore: Hebrews 4:14-16, Ephesians 6:18-20, Philippians 4:6-7.

Read Colossians 4:6 on the challenge to choose how we live. What does it practically look like to “walk in wisdom toward outsiders,” and how does gracious living create credibility for the gospel? Where are your primary “outsider” spaces (workplace, neighborhood, gym, family gatherings)? What would redeeming the time look like there this week? Additional scriptures to explore: Matthew 5:13-16, 1 Peter 2:11-12, Ephesians 5:15-18.

In Colossians 4:6 is the challenge to use gracious words. How can we cultivate speech that is both gracious and truthful - words that reflect Christ and are appropriate for each person? Think about a recent difficult conversation. How might grace have changed your tone, timing, or choice of words? What rhythms (prayer, Scripture meditation, slowing down) help season your speech before it leaves your mouth? Additional scriptures to explore: James 1:19-20, 1 Peter 3:15, Luke 4:22.
