Hebrews: Week 6 - Confident Christianity

Let Us Draw Near: Confidence in Our Access to God

Hebrews 10:19–22: Our confidence is not that we are good enough to approach God, but that Jesus is good enough to bring us near. We don't have to run away from God when we struggle. We can run toward Him.

Let Us Hold Fast: Confidence in the Faithfulness of God

Hebrews 10:23: We can hold firmly to our faith because God holds faithfully to His promises. Confidence in Christianity does not mean having all the answers. It means trusting the One who does.

Let Us Spur One Another On: Confidence Expressed in Community

Hebrews 10:24–25: Confident Christians don't just stand strong in their faith; they help others stand strong in theirs. How can we become a congregation that does more than gather together, but intentionally strengthens one another? Confident Christianity is not about believing more in ourselves. It is about trusting more in Jesus.
