Mere Christianity: Holy Wonder

The Wonder of the Trinity

"Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit." Matthew 28:19

We live in a culture that says, "If I can't explain it, I won't believe it." Faith says, "Because God is greater than me, I will trust Him." Maturity in Christ doesn't mean we understand everything—it means we rest in who God has shown Himself to be. The Trinity is not illogical; it is more than our logic can contain.

The Wonder of Time

"With the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day." 2 Peter 3:8

We often panic because we think we are running out of time. God is not. This truth frees us from despair over our past, anxiety about our future, and impatience with our present growth. God is working with an eternal view, even when we can only see today. That means God is never "catching up" with your life, never surprised by your struggles, and never late with His grace.

The Wonder of Transformation

"My little children, for whom I labor in birth again until Christ is formed in you." Galatians 4:19

Many of us settle for being "good church people." God wants more. Following Jesus means surrendering control so that Christ's life, character, and love are formed in us. Christianity is not about adding Jesus to your life—it is about letting Him become your life.

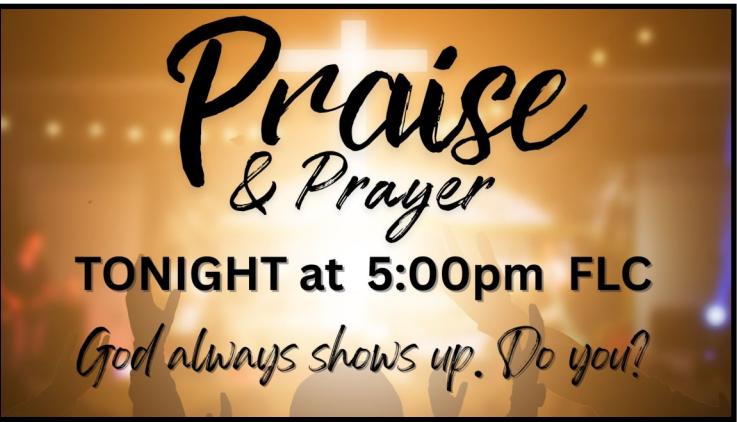

Lewis ends Mere Christianity by pointing us forward—not to answers, but to Life itself which flows from God to us through Christ by the Holy Spirit.
