"TO KNOW CHRIST AND MAKE HIM KNOWN"

March 8, 2026

Temptation's Answer:
Fear, Worship, & Service

"You shall fear the Lord your God and serve Him..." Deuteronomy 6:13

"You shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only you shall serve." Luke 4:8

Jesus is the full Truth of the Word of God
Jesus faces the temptation from the Devil by quoting the scripture of Deuteronomy. The original Hebrew is translated to Greek and, for us today, to English. Why fear a God who loves us? How do we worship a God with fear?

Wrestling with the Questions

Jesus does not always give us a simple answer. Discipleship was marked by questions and challenge. C.S. Lewis' writing is difficult as he often deals with extremes on both sides of an issue. Have you grown in your sense of fear or worship of the Lord? Has fear ever kept you away from the Lord?

Jesus knows you and He knows the Devil

Some passages (Isaiah 14; Ezekiel 28) suggest Satan once held a high, possibly worship-centered role before his fall. If so, the temptation in Luke 4 becomes deeply ironic: The former worship leader asks the Son of God to worship him (Rev. 12:7-9). Why would a worship leader lead a rebellion in heaven? In your time with Jesus, how does the Spirit specifically give you encouragement, wisdom, and courage in your temptations? Jesus gives us both grace and truth as we face our temptations.
