The Gospel of Matthew

The Gospel of Matthew: Watch and Be Ready

Matthew 24-25

Jesus is coming again—our calling is to stay alert, live faithfully, and be ready at all times.

Stay Awake and Pay Attention

Matthew 24:42-44 "Therefore keep watch, because you do not know on what day your Lord will come."

Jesus doesn't give a date—He gives a warning and a command: stay awake spiritually. Disciples must live with spiritual alertness, not apathy or fear. Are you spiritually awake—or have you gotten distracted by comfort or the culture around you?

Live Faithfully While You Wait

Matthew 25:14-30 (Parable of the Talents) "Well done, good and faithful servant!"

Faithfulness means using what God has entrusted to us—time, talents, resources—for His Kingdom. Don't bury your opportunities—invest them in ways that honor God. What has God placed in your hands that you need to use more faithfully for Him?

Be Ready to Meet the King

Matthew 25:31-46 (Sheep and Goats) "Whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me."

Readiness for Christ's return is not passive—it's active, expressed in love and compassion. Jesus makes it clear: how we treat others reflects how we treat Him. If Jesus returned today, would He find you loving others as if they were Him?

Jesus is coming again—not to scare us, but to prepare us. Live with urgency. Be faithful with what He's given you. And love others deeply as you watch for the return of the King.
