"TO KNOW CHRIST AND MAKE HIM KNOWN"

Oct. 12, 2025

Rich Mendola

A life committed to Biblical Hospitality

Rich Mendola and his wife, Janet, has been serving international students since 1980. His first assignment was at SUNY, Buffalo. In 1987, he moved to Ohio and began working with students at Ohio University. In 1991, He moved to Columbus to begin ministering on the campus of The Ohio State University in correspondence with International Friendships, a Christian ministry that involves showing hospitality and building friendships between international students and local churches while they are attending college in the United States. His present position is Global Ambassador for International Friendships. Rich enjoys relating to students from many different cultural backgrounds and has taken trips to visit past students in their home countries throughout Asia and Africa.

Rich is an active speaker making the needs of international students known as well as speaking on Biblical hospitality. He also practices hospitality, together with Janet, by hosting a home fellowship each week in their home. Rich and Janet are also church planters. In 1998, the Mendola's began All Nations Christian Fellowship, a multi-cultural church that meets near The Ohio State University Campus. Rich and Janet came out of retirement from Pastoral Ministries to plant Love of God Christian Fellowship in the midst of the 2020 COVID Pandemic to re-instate community in a time of isolation. Rich is also active in the Association of Christians Ministering Among Internationals (ACMI) where he has been a board member and is a frequent speaker.

Hebrews 13:2 - Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for by so doing some people have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it.
