Hebrews – Week 5: “Jesus’ Work – It is Finished!”

Jesus Did What We Could Never Do: Hebrews 8:6–12 — A Better Covenant

God's grace accomplishes what our goodness cannot. We do not obey God so that He will love us. We seek to obey God because He has already loved us.

Jesus Finished What We Could Never Finish: Hebrews 9:11–15 — A Better Sacrifice

What religion repeated, Jesus completed. Hebrews 9:14 adds something remarkable. Christ's blood cleanses our consciences from acts that lead to death so that we may serve the living God. We are forgiven so that we can serve God freely.

Jesus Secured What We Could Never Guarantee: Hebrews 9:25–28 — A Better Hope

Our hope is not in what we can accomplish for God, but in what Christ has accomplished for us. Our confidence rests in the One who has already offered Himself for us.

We do not work to become worthy of God's grace. God's grace works within us so that we can live worthy of our calling.
