Are you currently homeschooling your children? If so, how long?

How many children do you have that will be homeschooled by you? What are their names and grades?

Are there any special needs for your children? What are they?

Are both parents in agreement with homeschooling? If not, are there any concerns that we can help with?

Are you incorporating Christian values in your child's education?

Have you been under a homeschooling umbrella before? If so, which one and why are you considering changing? If not, who handled your oversight?

Are both parents employed outside of the home? If so, who will educate your children? If not, which parent will be responsible for most of the education?

Are your children involved in classes outside of the home, such as co-ops, tutorials, and concurrent enrollment?

Are there any special needs or conditions in your situation? Please explain.

What are your expectations of a homeschool umbrella and how can LoCo-GA best serve your family?
