Sabbatical Update

Blessings Redeemer.

During the months of March and April, I will be away on sabbatical. This time away has been thoughtfully planned and supported by leadership to allow for rest, reflection, and spiritual renewal.

It continues to be a joy to serve alongside you and to help steward the operational and financial health of our church and school. I am deeply grateful for the trust you place in our leadership team and for the many ways you support the mission of Redeemer.

During my absence, Pastor will oversee my financial and managerial responsibilities. Our administrative teams remain in place, and the systems we have built together will continue to support the day-to-day operations of the school and ministry. Our Account Manager, Jasmine Lopez, will cover all facility operational duties.

I look forward to returning refreshed and ready for the season ahead, especially as we continue preparing for growth and expansion.

Thank you for your continued prayers for our church, our school, and our leadership.
