

“You don’t want to **** with me today. I’ll ****ing kill you.” Aggravated assault in St Petersburg

March 11 seemed like any other normal Saturday at the abortion clinic on Central Avenue. The week before we encountered an angry woman who told us how proud she was to have had five abortions. I thought that I would be telling that story in this newsletter update, but little did I know there would be something far more significant another eventful day at the abortion clinic. We had to call the police when a young man verbally assaulted me, Please join us in thanking God for keeping us all safe.

popped the trunk and revealed a firearm. He then turned and threatened to kill another one of our sidewalk counseling team members. Thankfully, the police were on site in less than ten minutes. He was arrested and taken to the station. I want to thank the St. Petersburg Police Department for their response and the good witness and example of our sidewalk counselors as they interacted with law enforcement. Thankfully no one was injured but let's remember that several babies were still destroyed at this clinic.

The young man was charged with Aggravated Assault and posted a $5000 bond later that same day. The prosecutor, as of May 3, has decided not to prosecute, meaning the young man has pled to a lesser charge.

Florida Preborn Rescue is an interdenominational, non-profit sidewalk counseling ministry based in St. Petersburg, FL.

Our Director, Scott J Mahurin is currently raising financial support to do this ministry full time at Tampa Bay’s 10 abortion clinics. Currently, Scott is at 80% of full-time support.

He is retiring from teaching July 31 to pursue the rest of his funding and work at the clinics 20 hours a week.

HUGE ANNOUNCEMENT FROM SCOTT!

As you all know, about six years ago, I had an idea for full-time pro-life missions as a full-time sidewalk counselor. However, I was unaware of how to do this without beginning something myself. I also checked the couch cushions and my bank account, and it turns out I am not independently wealthy. ☺

So, I began to pray. In 2012, The LORD directed me to begin Florida Preborn Rescue and begin the process of raising financial support with the intention of this becoming my sole means of employment.

There are 10 abortion clinics in Tampa Bay, so the need for a full time presence is great.

Dozens of people from across the country are supporting this work with their prayers and their dollars.

Therefore, we have exciting news....

Beginning August 1, my wife Rebecca and I will be retiring from our teaching positions to manage Florida Preborn Rescue full-time.

My time will be split between raising the rest of my support (22% of the way to full time) and ministering at the clinics 20 hours a week.

This has been made possible by some significant yearly donors who are able to make up for the difference in monthly support until it all comes in.

As of press time, we need 19 donors at $100 a month or 38 donors at $50 a month.

Rebecca will manage the bookkeeping and scheduling from home, as well as working on recruiting new supporters and networking with local pro-life groups.

Thank you all for your prayers, and together, we can end abortion in Florida.

SAVE AT ALL WOMEN'S HEALTH CENTER!

Rejoice with us!

Saturday, April 1 was a busy day at the clinic on Central Avenue in St. Petersburg. Towards the end of the morning, an SUV pulled up with two women inside. They stayed in their car for at least 20 minutes without getting out.

This is usually a good sign. The longer the women wait, the more doubts they usually have, and the chance is greater that they will not go inside the clinic. It also gives us more time to pray!

A few more minutes passed, and the lady on the driver's side walked over to talk to me. As is always the case, you never know what to expect.

However, I immediately could tell this was going to be a good conversation. She asked me for help, for resources, and kept repeating over and over again, "She knows she doesn't have to do this."

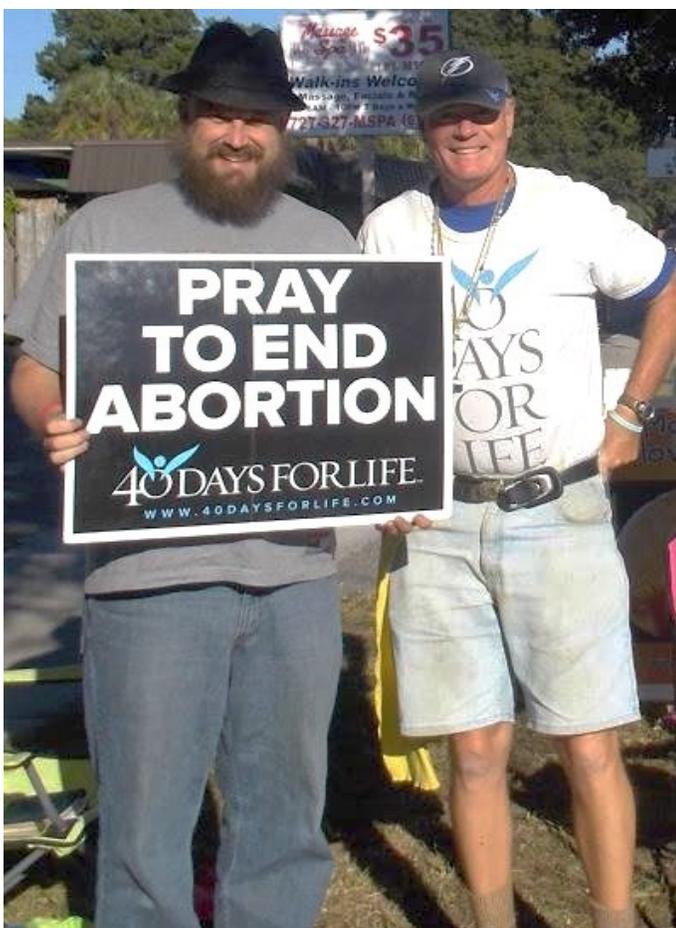

We directed her to a Carenet pregnancy center in her area, and they both left relieved.

What a blessing.

Please pray for "R" as she gets settled and that she responds to the help that she is currently being offered.

PRO-LIFE LEGEND LOST: RIP BOB GEORGE.

I couldn't believe it when I heard the news. We had just texted two days earlier.

On April 8th, Bob George had a massive stroke and was not expected to recover. Two days later, he was dead.

Bob George was a gift from God. He moved to St. Petersburg from Cincinnati in 2012 after retiring from his job as a police dispatcher. Bob was a devoted and active pro-life sidewalk counselor in Ohio. By devoted and active, I mean he was always there at the clinics whenever he had a free moment. Always. This wasn't occasional for Bob. It was constant.

He visited our area before on vacation, and noted (rightly) that there were hardly any sidewalk counselors in our area.

So, the LORD called him to St. Petersburg in 2012 to minister on the sidewalk in front of our five abortion clinics, most of the time, alone. I met him soon after that and I was immediately impressed with him. His commitment. His compassion. His faith. His love. He spoke to the women with love and genuine concern like Christ would do.

Any meeting or class that I would organize, Bob would be there. I have taught at least 15 sidewalk counseling classes. He was there for all of them. There was nothing new that he could have learned, but he always attended.

Anytime a slot would open during 40 Days for Life, Bob would fill it.

Anytime you needed an encouraging word, Bob would bring it.

There really are no words to describe the crushing loss that the pro-life movement is feeling here in St. Petersburg. We already feel it every day.

He would want us to carry on. And we will.

May God bring us more like him as we seek and save those who are perishing here in St Petersburg.
