DID YOU KNOW?

Ringgold Baptist Church officially came into being in 1876; however, according to information found in our archives, during the 1850's Baptists in the Ringgold community operated a school known as the Ringgold Academy, which was the forerunner to Averett College, now known as Averett University. Two of the instructors at this school were brothers named Sam and Jack Averett who later served as presidents of the college and whose family the college was named.
