Authorization of Medical Care

I understand and acknowledge that Covenant Presbyterian Church (CPC) does not provide health insurance for me, except for travel insurance which CPC may, in its sole discretion, choose to obtain. I agree that it is important for me to maintain insurance. I hereby certify that I am covered by a personal or group insurance plan, the policy name and number of which I have listed below., for hospitalization and medical expenses.

In case I am in need of any necessary medical or surgical treatment to protect my health and welfare while participating in the above mentioned activity, I authorize and agree to allow any authorized agent or employee of CPC to consent to and authorize the administering of such necessary medical and/or surgical treatment.

Participation Agreement

By signing below, the participant (or parent/guardian if participant is a minor) acknowledges and accepts the risks of physical injury associated with participation in the activity described above and authorize medical care as described above. Except for gross negligence on the part of the CPC, its officers, elders, employees or agents, the participant (or parent/guardian) promises to hold harmless CPC, its officers, elders, employees or agents for any injury related to the activity.

If a dispute over this agreement or any claim for damages related to this activity arises, the parties agree to settle the dispute according to biblically based mediation and, if necessary, legally binding arbitration under a Christian mediation or conciliation process in accordance with the rules of procedure promulgated by Peacemakers Ministries, Inc. of Billings, Montana or its successors. Judgment upon any arbitration award may be entered in any court otherwise having jurisdiction.
