What's Your Decision?

For each moral dilemma described below, identify the object, the intention, and the circumstances of each situation. Use these elements to decide what you would do.

MORAL DILEMMA #1 You were directed to read six books over the summer. For most of the summer you did not do the reading and spent time with your best friend. It is now August, your best friend is on a trip, and so you begin the work. You realize that you probably won't have time to finish the book list. So, you find someone who has done the work and use his/her notes.

What is the object? _____

What is the intention? _____

What are the circumstances? _____

What is your decision? _____

MORAL DILEMMA #2 You want to give your mom a nice birthday present, but you don't have enough money. You would never steal anything from a store in the small town where you live because you know how that would hurt the store owners. But today you are in the mall. Many of the stores at the mall are owned by big corporations that get their merchandise at a discount and charge too much. The gift would really make your mom happy and she has had a really difficult year.

What is the object? _____

What is the intention? _____

What are the circumstances? _____

What is your decision? _____

MORAL DILEMMA #3 There is a group of students at your school who have singled out one person in the class. They constantly make fun of that person and now you hear that they are harassing this person online. You and your friends do not participate in the bullying but you also haven't taken any action to stop what is happening.

What is the object? _____

What is the intention? _____

What are the circumstances? _____

What is your decision? _____

Worst and Best Case Scenarios

As much as we'd like to deny it, we've all experienced times when we acted at our worst. We've also made some pretty good choices and been at our best. Choose one of the situations listed below and describe both the worst and the best ways people could act in these circumstances. You may also make up a different situation.

Join the small group to which you have been assigned. Compare ideas, and select one of the situations to role-play. Present both worst and best case scenes in a way that shows you understand how people can get drawn into acting at their worst. Use the scenarios to illustrate how we can overcome the temptation to act contrary to Jesus' teachings and how we can behave in ways that show respect for all life.

SITUATION #1 The smartest person in your class, whom everyone expected to win the school spelling bee, just lost in the fourth round.

The worst you and your friends could do: _____

The best you and your friends could do: _____

SITUATION #2 A new student registered in your school this morning and will be in your homeroom. The student is blind and has a seeing-eye dog as a constant companion.

The worst you and your friends could do: _____

The best you and your friends could do: _____

SITUATION #3 On a class field trip, everyone wanted to make an extra stop to buy lunch at a fast-food restaurant. Pat, however, did not get off the bus with everyone else to buy lunch. You wonder if this is from lack of appetite or lack of money.

The worst you and your friends could do: _____

The best you and your friends could do: _____

SITUATION #4 _____

Prayer Corner: Aspirations

The Catholic Church has a tradition of short prayers called aspirations. Aspirations can help us to focus on God, to deal with an anxious moment, to fall asleep, to still our busy minds. Try using aspirations this month as a family. Here are some favorites:

- Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the Living God, have mercy on me a sinner.
- Jesus, come.
- Jesus, I trust in You.
- O Jesus, I surrender myself to you, take care of everything.

Masterworks of God

In Europe during the Middle Ages, many people could not read. Those who built churches designed artwork to teach about Christ and the Church. Pretend you are a designer; your assignment is to create a window in a new church to teach about one of the Seven Sacraments. The plan is to have seven stained-glass windows—one for each of the Seven Sacraments, so you will need to work in a group with six others. Discuss with your group who will work on each Sacrament. Sketch in your designs.

The Gifts of the Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit gives us many different gifts to help us on our faith journey:

WISDOM: Helps us see things more like God sees them. We can make decisions with clear thinking.

UNDERSTANDING: Helps us know why people say and do things. We can “stand with them” even if we don’t agree with them.

KNOWLEDGE: Helps us learn the teachings of our faith and of our world. We gain facts and information we need.

REVERENCE (PIETY): Helps us show respect for God and all of God’s creation.

RIGHT JUDGMENT (COUNSEL): Helps us seek good advice and give good advice before decisions are made.

COURAGE (FORTITUDE): Helps us stand up for what we believe in and live our faith without fear of what others think.

WONDER AND AWE (FEAR OF THE LORD): Helps us know our place before God. We see God’s power and his great love for us.

In the chart below, write about a time or situation when you need each gift. List one person you have seen use each gift and tell how they used it. Write on a separate sheet of paper if necessary.

	I need this gift when:	Who I saw use this gift:	How the person used this gift:

Father, Creator of all, thank you for summer! Thank you for the warmth of the sun and the increased daylight. Thank You for the beauty I see all around me and for the opportunity to be outside and enjoy your Creation. Thank You for the increased time I have to be with my friends and family, and for the more casual pace of the summer season. Draw me closer to You this summer. Teach me how to pray no matter where I am or what I am doing. Warm my soul with the awareness of Your presence and light my path with Your Word and Wisdom. As I enjoy Your creation, create in me a pure heart and a hunger and a thirst for you! Amen.
