SENIOR MINISTER SEARCH COMMITTEE UPDATE

Over a year ago a search committee was formed and given the task of finding a new Senior Minister. We trusted them to vet the candidates and find the person who would be the best fit for our congregation. This task was taken extremely seriously and weighed heavy on their minds and hearts. We are very pleased to announce that an offer has been extended to a candidate and we will have the opportunity to meet this person and vote as a congregation to accept them as our new Senior Minister. This process is required our by-laws and has been used for all of our past and current ministers.

Members are invited to a meet and greet on Saturday, January 10 from 1:00 - 3:00 pm in the church fellowship hall.

A congregational meeting to vote on the candidate will be held following both services on Sunday, January 11.

Faithfully,

Stephanie Clinton
Congregation President

Helen Green
Search Committee Chair
