Common Questions:

Team Formation: Each team will not exceed 10 people, including team leadership.

Applications: The application process is online. Upon request you will be emailed instructions on how to apply by Vincent Jones: vincent@africanewlife.org

Finances: Please don't let the cost keep you from this trip! There will be plenty of time to raise funds, and it is expected that many team members will raise support in order to go.

Team Meetings: At least 3 team meetings held before departure. Committing to this trip means you are also committing to participate in team preparation. Team meetings are mandatory.

Accommodations: We will be staying in the capital city of Kigali at ANLM's Mission Guest House and Akagera Lodge in Kageyo.

Immunizations are an additional personal expense beyond trip expenses listed above: The Centers for Disease Control recommends you are up to date on routine vaccinations such as measles, tetanus, polio, flu shot, etc. The following are other recommended immunizations prior to entering Rwanda:

- Yellow Fever
- Typhoid
- Antimalarial
- Hepatitis A
- Hepatitis B
- Meningitis

Passports: It is important that your passport will not expire within 6 months of your return date home. If you need to apply for a new passport – start now, the process can be slow.

Further Details: The day-by-day schedule while in country is subject to the team make-up as well as current ANLM needs in Rwanda. Discussions surrounding day-to-day plans will take place during team meetings. There is a Team Trip Guide that outlines cultural sensitivity, packing lists, and other valuable preparatory information online.

Transportation: While in country, we'll travel by van as arranged by local staff.
