God will gather those who belong to him

People tend to judge themselves by _____ and others by _____.

What is Jesus judgment based on?

1. The selfish will belong to themselves

For what reason would a shepherd separate his sheep from his goats?

Hell was not made for _____ but for
_____.

Why is there a limit to human kindness?

2. The selfless will belong to the source of all selflessness.

What do the sheep and the goats have in common?

When Jesus looks at Christians, what doesn't he see?

What does he see?

How did Jesus become "the least?"

How does that enable me to show kindness?

For me to remember:

My God left his throne to live and die among his enemies, so that they might become his friends. How then can I, the chief of sinners, see anyone else as less than me?
