Comments or additional information regarding Pass Through Revenue

Application for Deductions for Pass Through Revenue (For EPP Calculation)

The Equal Participation Plan (EPP) policy of the Free Methodist Church-USA allows deductions for pass-through receipts as follows:

Pass-through deductions will be allowed for gross receipts on:

- 1. The amount of revenue received by the church for which no charitable giving receipt is or may be issued, and which was received for the convenience of the church so that a single check could be written to a third party for camps, conferences, concerts, or sporting events; and/or
- 2. The amount of revenue received by the church which may be tax-deductible for a mission trip being taken by attendees of the church.

This is to be used only by those churches which had revenue on their books from receipts for the above events, and which turned around and paid a like amount for those events. The church's conference will review the amounts submitted, consult with the church if necessary, and approve the submissions before sending this form to FMCUSA for them to be considered in the EPP calculation.
