

MARSTON
MEMORIAL
HISTORICAL CENTER &
FREE METHODIST ARCHIVE

Mission: To COLLECT and PRESERVE Free Methodist history and EQUIP the Church to tell its story.

COLLECT

For those interested in an in-person visit, the Zahniser Chapel provides a unique and unparalleled experience, attracting people from all over the world who are impressed by its remarkable historical and architectural details. All furnishings donated by local FMCs.

Contact us for a private tour HISTORY@FMCUSA.ORG

PRESERVE

The Hugh A. White Library is an ideal destination for those looking to complete assignments, conduct research or simply take a deeper dive into Free Methodist History.

Contact us to schedule your visit 317-244-3660 X281

FM History Collection

EQUIP

Access to publications, resources, comprehensive collections, online libraries and more. See what we have to offer-

HISTORICAL.FMCUSA.ORG

CATHY ROBLING, DIRECTOR / JULIANNE CLASS, ARCHIVIST / KYLE MORAN, DIGITAL LIBRARIAN

5235 DECATUR BLVD., INDIANAPOLIS, IN 46241

MARSTON
MEMORIAL
HISTORICAL CENTER &
FREE METHODIST ARCHIVE

Our Vision: Connect ALL local and international Free Methodist Churches to our shared history.

Why people visit...

Researchers, Scholars and Authors discovering key material

Connecting visitors with their FM Story

Partner with us today as we are Mining the Past for Today's Mission: We shape, secure and share the FM story