

High School Mission Trip '24
URBAN PROMISE, Wilmington DE

WHERE:

Wilmington, DE to help with Urban Promise ministries and provide support for their summer children's program and work projects.

WHAT:

Last year, our students took on the role of, essentially, Crew Leaders in a VBS style program; helping kids get from class to class, leading them in games, crafts, and Bible stories, and forming relationships with students and peers. Afternoons are earmarked for physical labor roles: painting, deconstruction, landscaping, etc.

WHEN:

East Main students and leaders will be away June 23rd - June 30th. This will be our 17th trip returning to Urban Promise. Friday (evening)-Sunday (morning) will be spent at Ocean City, NJ.

COST:

While the details are not set in stone yet, the cost per student (if 15 students attend), will be around $700. But for those who are a regular of our youth ministry, East Main is willing to provide students $150 off of their cost. There will also be additional opportunities in the future to reduce their cost through volunteer hours (details in a follow-up email). But a reminder that these prices are NOT set in stone.
