From the Pastor's Pen...
My heart is full today as I reflect on the last few days. I am so thankful for the heritage passed down to me and my family from my dad. He was such a spiritual giant and genuine servant of Christ. As I mentioned at the funeral, he was a "hero of hope."
Thank you to everyone for the expressions of love poured out upon us. We have felt the love and prayers of friends and family, and God's peace and presence sustains us. Words somehow seem to be inadequate to express the thankfulness for the way we have been loved and honored. Thank you for the calls, texts, posts and for those who drove so far Tuesday and Wednesday to honor my dad and us.
We love each of you and pray that God's blessings will surround you. Dad placed all of his hope in the grace and work of Jesus. One day our hope in Christ, like my father, will be fully realized in His presence. Until then, we continue on as Zechariah wrote as "prisoners of hope."
