

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP

Jesus Christ summons us to answer God's call of mercy. Christ gathers us and gives us power to be healed and to heal, to be forgiven and to forgive, to be freed from sin and to set others free, to tell one another and the world: God's presence is at hand.

PASTORAL PRAYER AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, forever. Amen.

CHARGE AND BENEDICTION

PASSING OF THE PEACE

According to John's Gospel, the Risen Christ appeared to his disciples as they huddled behind locked doors and offered them the gift of peace (John 20:19). We invite you to share signs of Christ's peace with those with whom you are gathered, or to pass the peace virtually by calling, emailing, or texting your family and friends in our congregation and beyond.

GOING FORTH: OFFERING OUR GIFTS AND OUR LIVES TO GOD

With gratitude for the grace we have received, we go forth from worship to offer our energy, our hands, and part of our income in service to God. One way we respond to Christ's call is by giving our financial gifts to further God's mission in the world. You may mail a check to the church or make an online offering to support the many ministries of Fairmount Presbyterian Church by clicking the Giving tab on the homepage of our website (www.fpccle.org).

The 21-Day Racial Equity Habit Building Challenge, beginning June 13th

Have you ever made a successful change in your life? Perhaps you wanted to exercise more, eat less, or change jobs? Think about the time and attention you dedicated to the process. A lot, right? Change is hard. Creating effective social justice habits, particularly those dealing with issues of power, privilege, supremacy and leadership is like any lifestyle change. Setting our intentions and adjusting what we spend our time doing is essential. Sometimes the hardest part is just getting started. The good news is, there's an abundance of resources just waiting to empower you to be a more effective player in the quest for equity and justice. Please join our staff and leadership in the 21-Day Racial Equity Habit Building Challenge, beginning June 13. For 21 days we will do one action to further our understanding of power, privilege, supremacy, oppression, equity using readings, podcasts, videos, observations and ways to form and deepen community connections. For more information, visit our webpage www.fpccl.org, or speak to a staff member. We look forward to engaging with one another as we begin this crucial, lifelong work toward justice with the 21-Day Racial Equity Habit-Building Challenge.

SUNDAY ANNOUNCEMENTS

JOIN A SMALL GROUP

Everyone needs connection and community, especially now. This summer, Fairmount will launch virtual small groups using Zoom technology. The groups will meet a total of seven times between mid-June and the end of August. Groups will engage in Bible study, listening and discernment. Friendly trained leaders are available to facilitate and we have lots of choices on day/time. This is all part of our process to launch a new pastor search in the fall, so please join us!

Visit the Sign Up Genius link below and register for the weekly Small Group that best meets your schedule. Each group is limited to 10 participants. If you would like to be a part of a small group, but the slot you need is full, please email Pastor Lindsay (lindsayhl@fpccl.org).

Sign Up Here: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/70a054ca4af2caafc1-fpcsummer1>.

STAFF NOTE

Amy Kim Kyremes-Parks, Director of Spiritual Formation will be away for the next few weeks. She is taking this time to attend to her health in partnership with her health providers. She will be unavailable during this time and plans to return in July. Please contact the church office for assistance with items related to faith formation while she is away.

COMMUNITY POETRY PROJECT

Thank you to all who participated in the Community Poetry Project. A video with our poem read by some of its creators is on our website, Facebook and Youtube channel.

A MESSAGE FROM SERVE COUNCIL

We are excited to announce that Fairmount raised over $4,000 for the Hunger Network Walk. When you combine that with the matching funds from the Serve Council, that's over $6,000 to help meet the needs of those in our community who face food insecurity. Thank you to all of those who donated, and to those who walked!

HYMNAL REQUESTS

If you would like a hymnal for use, please contact Leah at lwyman@fpccl.org for more information. The church can deliver sanitized, bagged hymnals to your doorstep, or arrangements can be made for hymnals to be picked up from the exterior of the church building during set hours. Can't wait to make more joyful noise with our Fairmount family!

PRAYER REQUESTS DURING THIS DIFFICULT TIME

If you would like your prayer listed in our weekly Fairmount Prayer List which is sent to our prayer community, fill out this form.

This text comes from an eighteen-stanza hymn the author wrote to mark the first anniversary of his life-changing conversion experience. It is now customarily the first hymn in Methodist hymnals worldwide. This tune, adapted from a German composer, is the usual North American setting.
