

Time (Psalm 90)

The reality of time points to our _____.

Lord, you have been our dwelling place throughout all generations. Before the mountains were born or you brought forth the whole world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God. (vv. 1-2)

A thousand years in your sight are like a day that has just gone by, or like a watch in the night. (v. 4)

The brief nature of our time (lives) points to our....

* _____

You turn people back to dust, saying, "Return to dust, you mortals." (v. 3)

We are consumed by your anger and terrified by your indignation. You have set our iniquities before you, our secret sins in the light of your presence. All our days pass away under your wrath; we finish our years with a moan. (vv. 7-9)

* _____

Yet you sweep people away in the sleep of death—they are like the new grass of the morning: In the morning it springs up new, but by evening it is dry and withered. (vv. 5-6)

Our days may come to seventy years, or eighty, if our strength endures; yet the best of them are but trouble and sorrow, for they quickly pass, and we fly away. (v. 10)

The best use of our time: _____ the _____

Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom. (v. 12)

Have compassion on your servants... (v. 13)

Satisfy us in the morning with your unfailing love... (v. 14)

Make us glad... (v. 15)

May the favor of the Lord our God rest on us... (v. 17a)

...establish the work of our hands for us—yes, establish the work of our hands. (v. 17b)
