~ REFLECTION ~

Last week the word "remain" was repeated over and over in the second reading and the Gospel. This week the word is "love." In both his first letter and his Gospel, John writes "love one another." It is a command to all Jesus' disciples, from the apostles at the Last Supper to all of us gathered around the table of the Lord today. To love each other as we are loved by God is what we are all called to do.

~ REFLEXION ~

La palabra "permanezcan" se repitió una y otra vez en la segunda lectura y en el Evangelio de la semana pasada. Esta semana la palabra es "amor". Tanto en su primera carta como en su Evangelio Juan dice "amémonos los unos a los otros". Es un mandamiento para todos los discípulos de Jesús, desde los apóstoles en la Última Cena hasta todos nosotros que nos reunimos alrededor de la mesa del Señor hoy. Amarnos los unos a los otros, tal como Dios nos ama, es lo que tenemos que hacer.

Did You Know? Article 12 of the United States Catholic Conference of Bishops Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People calls for all dioceses to maintain "safe environment programs." Through the VIRTUS® child sexual abuse prevention programs, the Archdiocese continues to fulfill this commitment. Since 2002, the Archdiocese of Los Angeles has trained

329,000 adults to proactively protect children and young people from child sexual abuse, and has empower more than 1.4 million children and young people to protect themselves from child sexual abuse. For more information, visit www.archla.org/protecting
