What's one thing you spent money on and really regretted?

So far we've learnt that increasing wealth leads to the migration of hope for most people from God to money. To free ourselves from hope-migration, we must make a freedom declaration: 'I will not place my hope in riches, but in the One who richly provides.' Then we learnt that the way to avoid hope-migration is by pre-determining to do more and to give more. Because it's not the amount I give away but the percentage that counts.

1. Next Level Investments in our sermon was used to refer to investing in the coming age. What does this mean to you?
2. Many people attach their earthly wealth to their worth. This makes it hard for them to give. How should we Christians be different in this regard?
3. How can you deposit into the coming age account?
4. What's god's will for us concerning wealth?
5. Please share how your past investment in the kingdom or in others transformed you as an individual

Our next level investment is usually Spontaneous, sporadic and sparing. Instead, we need to prioritize, apportion percentages and be progressive in our investment.

You don't get credit for what you leave; you only get credit for what you give!
