

Building Character

Keeping up with the parents - Series

Ps. Waweru & Ps Evie– 14 May 2017

LG Questions

There are five things our parenting and raising kids should impart into the kids' lives.

1. A healthy self-esteem – Being able to view themselves as God does.
2. A sense of personal competence – They have something to offer the world.
3. Relational skills or what is called emotional and relational intelligence
4. Personal Integrity – in the character of the child
5. Spiritual godliness- A fear of the Lord, and a desire to obey his commands.

This week the sermon focused on personal competence and growing their relational intelligence or skills

Read & Briefly Discuss Deuteronomy 6:4-9 and Luke 2:52 in line with character building in children.

1. How does parenting happen all the time? Give examples of “great teaching moments”
2. Why are these three the most critical parenting moments happen during travel, during mealtime, and during bedtime.
3. do we Build a sense of personal competence in Children?
4. Explain how “The Way of the Ant”? It’s found in Proverbs 6:6 – 7 applies to raising competent children
5. Give practical ways in which we can help to train children so that they have the confidence that they can do something on their own.
6. Why is it important to motivate children as we train them?

Emotional/Relational Intelligence/Relational IQ

“Emotional intelligence gives people a competitive edge”

1. What is emotional intelligence?
2. Give practical examples of the following areas of emotional intelligence in children.
 - Ability to Perceive Emotions
 - Ability to Understand Emotions
 - Ability to manage their emotions.
 - Ability to use Emotions with purpose
3. How do the following activities help a child to develop Relational intelligence?
 - Teaching them to host
 - Teaching them rules of Interaction
 - Modeling how to resolve conflict

Words of blessing that we can pray over each other

Numbers 6:22

The Lord bless you, and keep you;

The Lord make His face shine on you,

And be gracious to you;

The Lord lift up His countenance upon you,

And give you peace.”

So we invoke God’s name on you the sons and daughters of God, and He shall bless you.”