Highlights from Bro. Bart!

Beginning this Sunday, during the Sunday School hour, the pastor will be leading a class for our newest members.

This class will be discussing all the things that make Gilgal Baptist Church the distinctive church it is.

Anyone who has joined the church by letter or baptism in the last few months is encouraged to meet with us.

Others who may be thinking of joining Gilgal might also benefit from these classes to help determine if this is the church for them.

Youth

Don't forget, the youth will have an activity this Sunday night beginning at 5 PM. We will be watching a video, enjoying fellowship, and we'll have dinner together. I hope to see everyone there as this will be a great time to be together.

Have a blessed week!
In Him,
Stephanie <><

The greatest tragedy of life is not unanswered prayer, but unoffered prayer.
F. B. Meyer

Why is it that we fail to pray sometimes? I am sure that there are many answers to this question. I am also sure that there are a lot of Christians, if they were honest, who would admit that they need to work on their prayer life. That is what we are going to do for the next four Sunday nights at 5:00 p.m. We will begin walking through the Lord's Prayer using it as our model and guide to help improve our prayer life. There will be a time of teaching and discussion. All are invited and encouraged to come. This will be a time to grow together. I look forward to seeing you there!

~Stephen Williamson

The month of May Bro. Bart will have the opportunity to give a devotional on the Christian radio station 101.7 The River. These should air in the afternoon between 3 and 5.

Please pray for these opportunities that they might reach someone:

- Needing a word of encouragement
- Looking for a church home
- Who will enjoy staying on Christian radio
