Highlights from Bro. Bart!

Lord, in my work — whether at a job, at home or in a service—

help me to do it with purpose and peace.

Keep me from being overwhelmed, and remind me that my worth is not in what I produce, but in

who I am in You.
Amen.

Youth

The time has come to begin planning for our winter retreat. We will be visiting the Smoky Mountains January 16-19. To secure your spot a deposit of $50 is due Wednesday, September 17th. We always have a great time of discipleship and fellowship during this time so I hope many of you will attend. There will be no Sunday night class this week due to the holiday weekend.

Have a blessed week!

In Him, Stephanie <><

Children's Ministry

Sunday nights @ 5:00 p.m.
GA's & RA's Wednesday nights @ 6:30 p.m.

At first it may feel like freedom and fun to skimp on prayer and neglect the Word. But then we pay: shallowness, powerlessness, vulnerability to sin, preoccupation with trifles, superficial relationships, and a frightening loss of interest in worship and the things of the Spirit.

Don't make summer make your soul shrivel. God made summer as a foretaste of heaven, not a substitute. God's messenger with a sun-soaked, tree-green, flower-blooming, lake-glistening letter of love to show us what he is planning for us in the age to come - "things which the eye has not seen and ear had not heard, and which have not entered into the heart of man, God has prepared for those who love him." (1 Corinthians 2:9)

SUMMER

Jesus Christ is the refreshing center of summer. He is pre-eminent in all things (Colossians 1:18), including vacations and picnics and softball and long walks and cookouts. He invites us this summer: "Come to Me, all who are weary and heavy-laden, and I will give you rest." (Matthew 11:28)
This is serious summer refreshment.
