Highlights from Bro. Bart!

Jackie Pullinger

The principle of the gospel is this: The gospel always brings life to the receiver and death to the giver.

If the gospel brought death to Jesus Christ why would we think that in preaching the gospel it would be any less for us?

Jesus says, "If any would be my disciple, he must take up his cross and follow me."

If it killed Him to give life to us, and he invites us then to do the same, why would we expect it would be any less?

So, the mixture of our message is life and death.

This is what Jesus said about his father in John 17: "The reason my father loves me is because I lay down my life, only to take it up again, no one takes it from me."

God had this extraordinary plan of winning you and me for all eternity - by having His Son killed - so that we might live - only to die, like Jesus, in giving the giving of the gospel.

It wasn't easy for Jesus - He spent His whole life practicing - so that when it was time, He would be ready - ready to give up His life - for you, and for me.

So, with so many Christians in America who have received the gospel, why haven't we gone? Why haven't we gone?

If you tasted such good things in Christ, why haven't you gone? Why aren't you dying so that others might live?
