2019-2020 ELEMENTARY SCHOOL PROFILE

LOCATION

Calvary Christian School, a ministry of Calvary Baptist Church has been providing quality Christian education since 1974. CCS's 63 acre campus is located on Taylor Mill Rd. about 4 miles south of the I-275 loop. Students come from Neighboring Kentucky counties, S.W. Ohio and S.E. Indiana.

FACILITY

The campus houses the preschool, elementary, middle and high schools. It includes a library, a gymnasium, two computer labs, a cafeteria, 2 soccer fields, 2 baseball fields and a playground. There are two entrances to the school property: one off of Taylor Mill Road and one off of Hands Pike. The school has three parking lots. A separate preschool school house is on the property.

SCHOOL SYSTEM

Calvary Christian School has students in grade Pre K3 – 12. Total enrollment is approximately 400 with about 200 of those being elementary students. Approximately 56 faculty and staff, spread out over three divisions: elementary school (K3-6) middle school (7-8) and high school (9-12). All Faculty members have a minimum of a bachelor's degree and are ACSI certified; over half have earned a Master's degree.

MISSION STATEMENT

Equipping the Next Generation to Impact the World for Christ.

VISION

Calvary Christian School students will use their minds and body to actively serve and glorify God with their whole life wherever His Will leads them.

CORE VALUES

Each student will grow academically, physically, spiritually and socially to be prepared to accomplish their God-given mission. – “Jesus grew in wisdom (academic) and stature (physical) and in favor with God and man (spiritual and social).” -- Luke 2:52

GOAL

To Develop the Mind of Christ - “Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus,” -- Philippians 2:5
