Dear Pine Grove Baptist Church Family,

As we reflect on our time shared together during Lilly and Libby McCain's services, we are filled with an overwhelming sense of gratitude. Your incredible kindness and unwavering support will be remembered for years to come. Just last week, we were at a sweet local church for a funeral, many of their members had also attended the services for the McCain's. We were all still talking about the incredible acts of kindness and generosity that you gave to all of us. It was in your presence that we felt the true essence of community, and that spirit was deeply inspired by the love you exemplify.

You not only opened your doors to us but opened your hearts in a way that is truly transformative. The warmth and generosity extended by each member created an atmosphere of belonging and comfort. Your commitment to service and humility serves as a guiding light for us all, inspiring us to embody the same principles in our own lives.

Your example of Christ's love will resonate far beyond our immediate circles; it will touch everyone we meet. You have shown us what it means to be givers, to stand together in faith and compassion, and to carry forward the legacy of love that Jesus taught us.

Thank you for being such a powerful beacon of hope and kindness.

With heartfelt thanks
Tammy Miller and our staff (Miller Funeral Home)
