We want to extend a heartfelt thank you to our Pine Grove family for your constant love and support of our community outreach events. Trunk or Treat was a wonderful success, and it couldn’t have happened without each of you who served with such joyful hearts.

Thank you to everyone who handed out candy, ran candy to "trunks", cooked and wrapped hotdogs, made popcorn, worked the inflatables, directed crosswalk traffic, and helped with cleanup. Your willingness to serve and shine the light of Christ in our community is such a blessing.

We are truly grateful for your servant hearts—thank you for being the hands and feet of Jesus and for making Pine Grove such a special place to belong.
